Discuss and demonstrate when and how to add MT subject headings.

Discuss where to find a list of your library's MT authors and their works.

Subject headings – they're important.

A search for “poetry” (Missoula Public Library’s online catalog)

Adding MT subject headings (MSC)

Things to know before you start

1. The subject headings we're covering are non-standard, so you'll only add these to a bib record in WorkFlows, not OCLC.
2. You can add these subject headings to new stuff coming in, but don't worry about adding them retroactively to older items.
3. Before adding a MT subject heading, review the MSC's criteria.

Montana-Specific Subject Headings (1/2)

If the author/creator/etc., meets one or more criteria:

- Currently lives in MT
- Was born and raised in MT
- Wrote the book/performed the work, etc., while living in MT
- Lived in MT for a substantial length of time

Then you can use a relevant MT subject heading
